Kate Pittman, animal communicator

Saturday, September 15, 2007

10 am – 3 pm. Registration starting at 9:15 am

\ Pot luck lunch **

Leicester Community Center, 2979 New Leicester Hwy (Hwy 63), Leicester NC

Our animal companions have something to say, and they fervently wish that they could say it and we could hear it. Kate says that when we do hear it, it pleases them greatly. Even wild animals and birds are conscious and have feelings. Opening up the interspecies chat room benefits both them and us.

Kate has been a dowser for over 30 years. She has worked for several years as a dowser/intuitive/animal communicator both on-site and remotely. In her workshops she teaches people how to effectively communicate with their animal friends through dowsing, to find out about their well-being and what they want to say to us. She also will talk about using animals to discover information in dowsing situations that are not animal-related at first.

Come to this educational and enjoyable presentation and hear Kate relate some of her remarkable adventures with animals. Please leave your animal friends at home for this meeting. If you would like to bring a photo of an animal buddy, you may find another attendee who would like to practice the new techniques with you during our lunch break.

Kate lives in Haywood County with her family of 2- and 4-leggeds and in the midst of many friends in nature.
